THE MaMa Project PRESENTS

MAX GOLDNER
CHOREOGRAPHER

SOPHIE BILLINGE
PRODUCER

Orchesis

FEBRUARY 16th + 17th
FRIDAY @ 8PM
SATURDAY @ 2PM + 8PM
MINOR LATHAM PLAYHOUSE
PROGRAM

SEE ME is a culminating spatial analysis, experiment, and confrontation. With mirrors placed throughout the back of the stage, audience members will be challenged to see themselves through the dancers, creating a dual image and complex visual layering. As SEE ME progresses, mirrors change and so do reflections. Dancers and audience members must constantly adjust, adapt, and assess.

“She had blue skin, And so did he. He kept it hid And so did she. They searched for blue Their whole life through, Then passed right by And never knew.”

―Shel Silverstein

CAST + CREATIVE

MAX GOLDNER (Choreographer)
Max is a choreographer currently pursuing his B.A. in Urban Studies with a specialization in Architecture at Columbia University. Raised in South Orange, New Jersey, Goldner trained under Lydia Johnson, where he began exploring his passion for choreography, and at Vassar College under the direction of John Meehan and Steve Rooks. His recent works include Brotsjór (Breaker), Human Mechanics, Mishegas, and Detached, choreographing for companies including the Vassar Repertory Dance Theatre at the Bardavon Opera House. Most recently, Max created Transpositions for Columbia Ballet Collaborative’s Fall Works at Manhattan Movement Arts Center. Max would like to thank his supportive cast and MaMa/Orchesis board for their support, commitment, and flexibility.

SOPHIE BILLINGE (Producer)
Sophie is a sophomore at Barnard College studying Environmental Science. Raised in Brooklyn, NY, Sophie trained extensively in ballet and modern dance at Manhattan Youth Ballet. On campus, she is a repetiteur for Columbia University Ballet Ensemble and she has choreographed for Orchesis: A Dance Group. Sophie would like to thank the Orchesis Board for all their support, as well as the incredible MaMa dancers and choreographer for their dedication.

ABOUT THE MaMa PROJECT

The MaMa Project is an outlet for a chosen choreographer to explore and expand their creative process by developing their own complete evening-length work. It’s an opportunity for dancers to be in a cast of a smaller size and a more intimate nature. Collaboratively, the group creates a new work through process-based choreographic methods that allow for originality, catharsis, and creativity. This experience would not be possible without the support and funding by Orchesis: A Dance Group.

Special thanks to the Orchesis E-Board, Barnard Dance Department, Columbia/Barnard Offices of Student Engagement & Life, and the Minor Latham Playhouse Staff.
