This fun song about having a great time with your friends was featured on the Norwegian TV show, Skam. “5 Fine Frøkner” translates to “5 Fine Ladies,” and this piece is danced by 20 fine frøkner! Jeg elsker dere, takk for alt!

Amanda Klepper, SEAS '22

Amanda is a sophomore in SEAS studying Civil Engineering and Architecture, and this semester, she is choreographing a contemporary piece to “Loved Ones” by Armando Young. She is so grateful to her wonderful cast for all that they have put into the piece, and she can’t wait to see it on stage!

Michaela Fleischer, BC '22

A sophomore in Barnard College, Michaela has been involved in numerous dance and theater groups on campus. She was most recently seen in Barnard Dance’s New York Live Arts performance, and has previously performed in past NYLA and Miller shows. She is the Props Master and a repetiteur for CU Ballet Ensemble and choreographed numerous ballet pieces for the club’s recent production of Le Corsaire. She has also choreographed for CoLab, Columbia Musical Theater Society’s Godspell, and King’s Crown Shakespeare Troupe’s Romeo and Juliet. Outside of dance, Michaela is the Social Media Director, Events Coordinator, and Finance Director of Columbia Youth for Debate. She is so excited to have choreographed her first piece for Orchestis this semester!

Emily Li, CC '20

To my lovely cast that has endured many rehearsal changes and scheduling fiascos, thank you so much for sticking through the piece this semester! I'm so grateful for everyone who helped bring this vision alive, and I can't wait to see y'all light up the stage. A special thank you to my Assistant Choreographers Emma Weise, Amelia Pappas-Horri, and Ava Morouse for helping me tremendously throughout this process, from taking attendance to choreographing - I can't wait to see what you all come up with next!

Olivia Roche, BC '20

Endings are hard. Sometimes we hold onto relationships for longer than we should because of that. My piece is about learning when to move on-- or at least trying to.

Mira has danced in Orchesis many a time, but this is her choreographic debut! She wants to thank her cast for the dedication, effort, and laughter they all brought to rehearsal.

Mira Tignor, BC '20

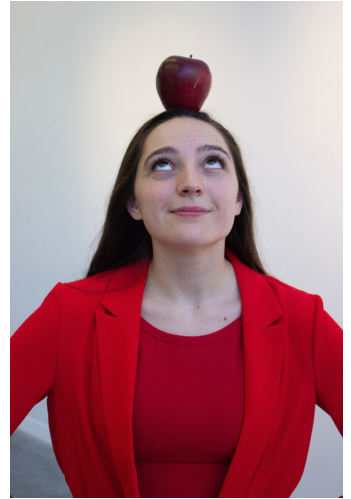

Kat Bartley, BC '20

Together with my incredibly talented cast, I created a piece that showcases individuality and champions self-empowerment. The dancers learned the movement with no stylistic guidance and no choice but to make it their own. The final product is a mosaic of 14 dancers with unique interpretations of the movement that they share. The piece is a depiction of concurrent unity and individuality, group and self, dance and dancer. I want to thank my amazing cast for giving their heart and soul to this project. Each and every one of you is an outstanding individual, and together we've made one hell of a team!!

Bri Alico, CC '20

To my absolutely wonderful cast: thank you for putting your time, effort, and emotion into this piece! You all really helped my artistic vision come to life this semester. I thank my cast and the entire Orchesis community for making my first choreographing experience so lovely!

Posey Cohen & Sarah Beck, BC '22

Both coming from the suburbs of Chicago, Sarah and Posey (better known as Sosey) love hip hop, LOVE their cast, and are not actually related in any way. Coming together to choreograph during their third semester in Orchesis, this piece encompasses the fun and "aggressive" style of hip hop they love to do. They have had the best time every Sunday coming together to laugh and dance with their cast and cannot wait for the show!

Xixi Wang, BC '22

I hope my piece serves as a reminder of finding a place where you feel the most safe, supported, and loved, even during times when you feel like you don't belong. Thank you to my lovely cast for turning my vision into a reality. I'm so excited to watch you all kill it on stage!

Gianna Raimo, BC '21 & Nicole Kohut, CC '22

Gianna and Yellow have had the best time dancing with their gellies to the greatest hits of Britney Spears. They can't wait to show you how fabulous the gellies are. You'll just have to come to the show and see for yourself 😊 Gello out

Sanjana Marcé, CC '21

I am so grateful for having spent another semester forcing my unparalleled love of Billie Eilish onto the Orchesis community. To my extraordinary cast - thank you for brightening my weekends, bearing with my inability to count, and giving me the chance to move and groove with the most beautiful people. You all remind me that sometimes the best self-care is to turn the lights out and dance together (even at midnight on a Sunday).

Sarah Hanrahan, BC '20

This is an upbeat piece about learning not to take things too seriously and going with the flow, but my cast has been working so hard this semester and I love them all so much. I can't put into words how much I appreciate all of their time, energy, and dedication.

Tamryn Hodge, BC '21

It's essentially a story about a couple playing video games, from the pov of the characters. I really wanted this to be a feel-good kind of piece, a little bit of partying, and a smidge of cute. Even if you have no idea what's going on, I hope you still leave having had a good time. <3

Lauren Ogden, CC '21

I'm so excited for my Orchestis choreographic debut, and I've loved every minute of setting this fun and sassy piece! To my cast: thank you for your endless hard work and patience (especially that one time when I couldn't stop coughing), as well as your willingness to show up to our 11pm rehearsals! Now let's go be the rich girls we all know we are 🤑 🤑
